

WAHLQUIST, Anders Johan, Bishop of Grant Ward, Granite Stake, is a son of Johannes Anderson and Anna Lisa Danielson Grek, and was born Oct. 8, 1858, in Västorp parish, Jonköpings Län, Sweden. He was baptized into the Church Dec. 8, 1883, by Elder Sven P. Nelson, and was subsequently ordained to the Priesthood in the following order: Ordained a Teacher in May, 1884; a Priest in September, 1884; an Elder May 10, 1885, by Olej Olsen; a Seventy April 29, 1892, by George Reynolds; a High Priest April 25, 1904, by George Albert Smith, and a Bishop Feb. 24, 1907, by Pres. Joseph R. Smith. Elder Wahlquist has spent several years in the missionary field. From May, 1884, to September, 1888, he labored as a local missionary in the Stockholm conference, Sweden, and in 1892-94 he filled another mission to his native land, laboring in the Gothenburg conference, over which conference he presided during the last year of his mission. Among the eccle-

105
MS Biog Ency 2: 184-105

BIOGRAPHICAL

105
Wahlquist, Anders Johan, Bishop of Grant Ward, Granite Stake, is a son of Johannes Anderson and Anna Lisa Danielson Grek, and was born Oct. 8, 1858, in Västorp parish, Jonköpings Län, Sweden. He was baptized into the Church Dec. 8, 1883, by Elder Sven P. Nelson, and was subsequently ordained to the Priesthood in the following order: Ordained a Teacher in May, 1884; a Priest in September, 1884; an Elder May 10, 1885, by Olej Olsen; a Seventy April 29, 1892, by George Reynolds; a High Priest April 25, 1904, by George Albert Smith, and a Bishop Feb. 24, 1907, by Pres. Joseph R. Smith. Elder Wahlquist has spent several years in the missionary field. From May, 1884, to September, 1888, he labored as a local missionary in the Stockholm conference, Sweden, and in 1892-94 he filled another mission to his native land, laboring in the Gothenburg conference, over which conference he presided during the last year of his mission. Among the eccle-